Should I Postdoc? A Guide for Graduate Students in STEM and the Health Sciences
Career Center, Room 200
12:00PM–1:30PM
Postdoctoral experience can range from an absolute necessity to an attractive distraction, depending on your career goals. Join us as we separate myth from reality in this primer on whether or not, and how, to pursue a postdoctoral position.

Exploring Careers In... DATA SCIENCE
CNSI Auditorium
8:30AM–10:30AM
Join us for an engaging panel with PhD data scientists representing a wide array of industries. Learn what data science is and how UCLA PhDs are successfully transitioning into data scientists. Find out what skills employers are looking for in data scientists and how you can become a competitive candidate. A networking breakfast will kick off the event, followed by the panel at 9AM.
